

Junior Java Developer

What's great in the job?

- Excellent salary package and yearly bonus scheme
- Dynamic and interesting projects for international clients
- Continuous training and various professional development opportunities
- Individual career path in an international company
- Work-life balance, friendly work environment, exciting team buildings
- Healthy work environment - company sponsored supplementary medical insurance and participation in a sports program (MultiSport)
- 100% Remote work with optional workspace in co-working environment
- Employee referral program

Responsibilities

- Development of innovative solutions
- Maintain and extend existing software modules (IT back-end, service platforms)
- Close collaboration with other partners and client specialists
- Polite and professional communication

Requirements

- 1+ years of Java experience is required
- Experience with Hibernate
- Database knowledge (Preferably MySQL)
- Experience with Microservices
- Experience in working in an Agile Development team
- Experience with Spring
- Good English knowledge is required
- Independent and self-motivated personality with good problem-solving skills
- Willingness to work in an international environment with distributed teams

Desired Skills and Experience

- Experience with Apache Karaf
- Experience with Apache Camel
- Experience with Elasticsearch
- Experience with Angular
- Experience with delivery and development of medium or large-scale projects is an advantage
- Open to working together with client specialists if required

Benefits

Additional health insurance and dental insurance.

PTOs

Vacation, Sick, and paid leaves as well as an extra paid leave for every year in the business.

Sponsored Events

Happy Hours every month, 2 team-buildings per year and more internal events.

Work from home!

We offer full remote work as well as a co-working space desks.